(Lth YEAR.) THE (No. 2510.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1795.

An ACT to appoint an agent for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five.

BE IT ENACTED, by the general assembly of Maryland, That Randolph Brandt Latimer be agent of this ſtate, to execute the truſt and power repoſed in him by virtue of this act, from the firſt day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, until the firſt day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix.

II. And be it enacted, That the ſaid agent ſuperintend the collection of all arrearages and balances due from the ſeveral collectors of the reſpective counties within this ſtate, appointed ſince the firſt day of January, ſeventeen hundred and eighty-three; and the ſaid agent is hereby authoriſed and required to call upon the treaſurers of the reſpective ſhores for an accurate ſtatement of all arrearages and balances due from ſuch collectors, and ſuch account ſhall be furniſhed by the ſaid treaſurers accordingly.

III. And be it enacted, That the ſaid agent be authoriſed to ſuperintend the collection of all balances due to the ſtate on the auditor's books, or on open account; and the ſaid agent ſhall have power to require payment of, and if neceſſary to ſue for and recover the ſame; and the ſaid agent, with the approbation of the governor and council, may make compoſition with any ſuch debtors, and take bonds to the ſtate, with ſufficient ſecurity, and give time for payment, not exceeding three years from the firſt day of December, ſeventeen hundred and ninety-four, always requiring annual payment of the intereſt, and equal annual payments of the principal.

IV. And be it enacted, That the ſaid agent be authoriſed to ſuperintend the collection of all monies due to the ſtate for duties, fines, penalties, forfeitures and amerciaments, and forfeited recognizances, and for ordinary, retailers and marriage licences, and to require payment, and (if neceſſary) ſue for and recover the ſame; and the ſaid agent may allow for inſolvencies, and credit any money that the party is not chargeable with by law; and for his information of the law he may take advice of the attorney-general in writing.

V. And be it enacted, That whenever there ſhall be occaſion to expoſe to public ſale the property of any collector, or his ſecurities, by virtue of any execution already iſſued, or to be directed for this purpoſe, the agent ſhall cauſe public notice to be given of ſuch ſale, and ſhall attend the ſame, and if it ſhall appear that there is danger of loſing any part of the debt due to the ſtate, and not otherwiſe, ſhall purchaſe any property ſo expoſed to ſale for the uſe of the ſtate, in payment, or part payment, as the caſe may be, of the arrearages due by the collectors whoſe property may be ſo purchaſed; and any property ſo purchaſed for the uſe of the ſtate, the ſaid agent may again expoſe to public auction on the moſt advantageous terms for the uſe of the ſtate, and if the ſame be ſold on credit, the ſaid agent ſhall take bond, with good and ſufficient ſecurity, to be approved of by the treaſurer of the weſtern ſhore, from the purchaſers of ſuch property; and all bonds by him ſo taken ſhall be depoſited, with an accurate liſt thereof ſubſcribed by him, into the treaſury of the weſtern ſhore, and ſhall be a lien upon the real property of ſuch purchaſers and their ſecurities from the reſpective dates, or ſo much thereof as is mentioned in the ſchedule thereto annexed.

VI. And be it enacted, That the ſaid agent ſhall have power to diſpoſe of all confiſcated Britiſh property that remains unſold, except the property of Edmund Jenings, of the city of London, and of Thomas Digges, formerly of Maryland, but now reſiding in Europe, and take bonds to the ſtate, with ſufficient ſecurity, and give time for payment, not exceeding three years from the firſt day of December, ſeventeen hundred and ninety-four, always requiring annual payment of the intereſt, and equal annual payments of the principal.

VII. And be it enacted, That the governor and council be authoriſed to require new bond and ſecurity from every purchaſer of confiſcated or other property ſold by this ſtate, who has not heretofore inſtalled for the ſame; and provided the ſaid purchaſer or his ſecurities, or either of them, do not, on or before the firſt day of May next, of which two months notice at leaſt ſhall be given in the Annapolis, Eaſton, Frederick, and one of the Baltimore news-papers, come in and inſtal the ſame with the agent of this ſtate, that then in all ſuch caſes it ſhall and may be lawful for the agent, and he is hereby authoriſed and required, to enter upon and take back the ſaid property to and for the uſe of the ſtate, and as early as practicable thereafter to diſpoſe of the ſame, on a credit of three years from the firſt day of December next, always requiring annual payments of the whole intereſt, and equal annual payments of the principal; which bonds, when taken, ſhall be a lien on the real eſtate of the purchaſer and his ſecurities; and the ſaid agent ſhall lay before the legiſlature, at their next ſeſſion, a liſt of all perſons from whom property ſhall be taken back in virtue of this act, the amount of the former ſales, and alſo the amount of ſales in purſuance of this act; and the ſaid agent, with the approbation of the governor and council, may make compoſition with the purchaſers of ſaid property ſo taken back, for the value of the annual uſe of the ſaid land while in the poſſeſſion of ſuch purchaſer or purchaſers; and in caſes where the ſaid purchaſer is of ſufficient ability to pay for the uſe of the land ſo purchaſed, and ſhall neglect to come in and compromiſe the ſame, the agent is hereby required to inſtitute ſuits for the recovery thereof.

VIII. And be it enacted, That the agent ſhall immediately call on and requeſt the attorney-general to commence, and proſecute to final determination as ſpeedily as poſſible, the ſtate's right to all confiſcated property which hath been or may be made known and diſcovered to the ſaid agent; and the ſaid agent ſhall report to the next ſeſſion of aſſembly ſuch ſuits as are or may be depending to recover the ſame, and alſo ſuch as may then not be commenced, with the reaſons aſſigned by the attorney-general why the ſame have not been commenced.

IX. And be it enacted, That if any bond debtor to the ſtate, for confiſcated property purchaſed, or otherwiſe, ſhall neglect to make payment, agreeably to the condition of his bond, and ſundry reſolves of the general aſſembly, the ſaid agent ſhall cauſe proceſs to iſſue for the whole principal and intereſt then due, or ſhall proceed on any execution already iſſued and ſerved and ſuſpended, as occaſion may require, or under the direction, and with the approbation of, the governor and council, he is hereby authoriſed to delay any execution as long as they may think expedient and neceſſary.

X. And be it enacted, That the ſaid agent be authoriſed to ſuperintend the collection of all balances due on bonds taken for taxes due before the firſt of January, ſeventeen hundred and eighty-three; and the ſaid agent ſhall alſo ſuperintend the collection of all balances due on bonds inſtalled, or otherwiſe, for the emiſſions of paper money of ſeventeen hundred and ſixty-nine and ſeventeen hundred and ſeventy-three.

XI. And be it enacted, That no proceſs ſhall iſſue againſt any of the public debtors, unleſs by the direction of the ſaid agent.

XII. And be it enacted, That the ſaid agent ſhall have power to fix ſuch days for the ſale of property, taken by fieri facias at the ſuit of the ſtate, as he may think proper, always taking care to give at leaſt twenty days public notice thereof; and the ſaid agent ſhall alſo have power to ſuſpend the ſales, from time to time, as he may think moſt to the advantage of the ſtate.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the ſaid agent ſhall pay into the treaſury, in ſpecie, the amount of all ſpecie by him received in the diſcharge of the duties of this act.

XIV. And be it enacted, That in all caſes where bonds ſhall be taken in virtue of this act, the bonds ſhall be a lien on all the real property of the obligors from the date thereof, or on ſo much of the ſaid real property as the governor and the council ſhall think ſufficient, to be particularly mentioned in a ſchedule to be annexed to the ſaid bond, in which caſe it ſhall be a lien on the property contained in ſuch ſchedule, and no more, ſuch bond and ſchedule to be lodged with the treaſurer of the weſtern ſhore.

XV. And be it enacted, That all bonds taken in virtue of this act ſhall expreſs the county in which the obligors reſpectively reſide, and the treaſurer of the weſtern ſhore ſhall, within one month after he receives them reſpectively, cauſe them, with the ſchedule annexed to them, to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the general court of the weſtern ſhore at the expence of the obligors; and a copy of the ſaid record, certified under the hand and official ſeal of the ſaid clerk, ſhall be as good evidence in any court of law or equity in this ſtate as the original bond would be if it was produced; and if any of the obligors in any ſuch bonds reſide on the eaſtern ſhore, the ſaid treaſurer ſhall, within ſix months from the time he receives the ſame reſpectively, tranſmit to the clerk of the general court of the eaſtern ſhore, in the ſame manner as papers on public ſervice are tranſmitted, a copy of ſuch bonds and ſchedules, certified as aforeſaid by the clerk of the general court of the weſtern ſhore, to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the general court of the eaſtern ſhore, at the expence of the obligors, and in ſuch caſe a copy of the ſaid record, certified as aforeſaid by the ſaid clerk of the general court of the eaſtern ſhore, ſhall be good evidence as aforeſaid.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the ſaid agent ſhall render a fair and full account of his ſeveral proceedings under the authority of this act, to the general aſſembly at their next ſeſſion, and ſhall be allowed for his ſervices the following commiſſions, to wit: For all payments made to either of the treaſurers on bonds for confiſcated property, one per cent. for all bonds with ſecurity, taken by the ſaid agent on reſales of confiſcated property in virtue of this act, two and one half per cent. for all monies collected on open accounts, not including monies ariſing from fines, forfeitures and amerciaments, ordinary, retailers, marriage, hawkers and pedlars licences, which have become due ſince the firſt day of January, ſeventeen hundred and ninety-one, ſix per cent. and for all other monies by him actually received and paid into the treaſury, three per cent. and for all other bonds taken in virtue of this act, one per cent.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the ſaid agent, before he enters upon the execution of the duties of this act, ſhall give bond to the ſtate, before the governor and the council, in the penalty of twenty thouſand pounds current money, with ſuch ſecurity as the governor and council ſhall approve, for the faithful performance of the ſaid duties, which bond ſhall be lodged with the treaſurer of the weſtern ſhore, and ſhall alſo take an oath before the chancellor, that he will well and faithfully diſcharge the duties of agent, under the act, entitled, "An act to appoint an agent for the year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five." to the beſt of his ſkill and judgment; the certificate of which oath ſhall be annexed to, or endorſed on, the ſaid bond.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That if the ſaid agent ſhall not accept his appointment, or if after acceptance he ſhall not give bond and take the oath aforeſaid before the firſt day of February next, or ſhall die, the governor and the council are hereby authoriſed and requeſted to appoint a fit and proper perſon in his place, who ſhall have and execute all the authorities and powers veſted in the ſaid Randolph Brandt Latimer by this act, ſuch perſon firſt giving ſecurity and taking the oath aforeſaid.

In COUNCIL, January 5, 1795.

ORDERED, That the act of the laſt ſeſſion of aſſembly "to appoint an agent for the year 1795," be publiſhed eight weeks ſucceſſively in the Annapolis, Eaſton, and Frederick news-papers, and Maryland Journal, and Baltimore Univerſal Daily Advertiſer, and that all purchaſers of confiſcated or other property ſold by this ſtate, who have not heretofore inſtalled their debts, be and they are hereby required to inſtal the ſame with the agent of this ſtate, on or before the firſt day of May next, in the manner preſcribed by the ſeventh ſection of the ſaid act.

Extract from the minutes,

JOHN KILTY, Clk.

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, December 26, 1794.

1. RESOLVED, That the agent of the ſtate immediately demand a return of the amount of the 2/6 tax for the year ſeventeen hundred and ninety-one from the commiſſioners of the tax in thoſe counties where the ſame hath not been returned, and report to the next ſeſſion of aſſembly ſuch as refuſe to make return.

2. RESOLVED, That the agent be inſtructed to put in ſuit the bonds of the clerks of the reſpective counties who have heretofore neglected, or who may hereafter neglect, to pay the taxes by them received for ordinary, retailers and marriage licences, on the day appointed for payment of the ſame, and in no caſe to remit the penalty of fifteen per cent, impoſed by law, and accruing on ſuch their neglect of payment.

3. RESOLVED, That the agent reduce to bond, as ſpeedily as poſſible, all balances on open account due to the ſtate in caſes where the ſame is practicable.

4. RESOLVED, That the agent immediately call on the ſupervifors of the roads of the ſeveral counties of this ſtate, who have before the firſt day of January, 1785, received advances of public money, and omitted to account therefor, to render an immediate account of their receipts and diſburſements, with the balance remaining due, and the ſaid agent is hereby directed to report thereon to the general aſſembly, at their next ſeſſion.

THE ſeveral county clerks who have not made their annual returns and payments on the firſt day of November, agreeably to law, are requeſted to attend to the ſecond reſolution publiſhed above. Suits will certainly be commenced againſt every delinquent on the 10th day of February next. The late ſheriffs of the ſeveral counties are alſo requeſted to attend to their payments, or ſuits will be inſtituted againſt them on the aforeſaid day. The debtors to the ſtate of Maryland for confiſcated property purchaſed, and others who have inſtalled their debts, are alſo informed that proceſs will iſſue againſt every delinquent on the aforeſaid 10th day of February next, without reſpect to perſons. The agent ſincerely hopes that more attention will be paid to this than to his former notices, and that it will be received by the parties intereſted as it is intended, that is, to ſave them a conſiderable expence, and himſelf the diſagreeable neceſſity of enforcing payment.

RANDOLPH B. LATIMER, Agent of the State of Maryland.

Annapolis, January 6, 1795.

KINGSTON, December 27.

The Mary ſailed from Port-au-Prince at 12 o'clock at noon on the 15th inſtant, with twenty-four French gentlemen on board, four Engliſh negroes, ſix or ſeven ſeamen, the maſter, mate, and one gentleman paſſenger. At nine in the evening, between the triangles and the point of St. Marc, they were attacked by a republican brig privateer, which came out from behind the iſland of Gonaive, engaged them with great ſpirit for an hour and half, and then went off, having killed two of the French, and wounded three of the crew.

A ſhort time before the cloſe of the action, the privateer's people boarded, and ten or a dozen of them were at one time on the Mary's bowſprit; but a well directed volley from the ſmall arms of the French paſſengers (whoſe gallantry and good conduct through the whole action cannot be ſufficiently commended) and a diſcharge of caniſter ſhot from an after gun, effectually ſwept off the deſperadoes.

The captain of the privateer ſpoke Engliſh too well to be any other than an Engliſh or American ſubject; the major part of the crew, which was extremely numerous, appeared to be brigands; from the darkneſs of the night, the number of guns could not be counted, but it is ſuppoſed there were eight or ten. The Mary had eight mounted.

NEWPORT, February 3.

Laſt Sunday evening arrived here, the ſhip Patty, of New-York, John Greenfield, maſter, from Liſbon. This ſhip met with very heavy gales on the coaſt, ſuffered conſiderable damage; loſt one man overboard, and had another, at the ſame time, diſabled, by a fall frem the maintop-ſail-yard, upon the deck.

About the time when this ſhip ſailed from Liſbon, the Portugueſe ſquadron at Gibraltar was to be reinforced. The admiral had ſome time before ſent a convoy to take charge of the American veſſels at Malaga—which meaſure was approved of, by his court. No Algerine cruiſers have been lately in the Atlantic. The cruiſers which had been out, from the ports of Morocco, were all in port; and the commerce of the United States would ſtill remain uninterrupted by them.

Captain Greenfield informs, that captain John Irwin, in the ſloop Dolphin, from Boſton bound to Liſbon, was taken by a frigate, but he afterwards retook her and came into Liſbon, where the French people were put in priſon. Captain Irwin informed him that an Engliſh packet, called the Thyne, from Liſbon bound to England, was taken two or three days after ſhe ſailed, by a French frigate formerly belonging to the Engliſh, called the Thames—that the ſaid frigate had taken three Engliſh packets in that trade, within twelve months. It was ſaid in Liſbon, that the above packet had on board four hundred thouſand dollars.—The ſaid frigate had alſo taken one Spaniſh and two Dutch ſhips, three Engliſh ſhips and four brigs, all very valuable prizes, which ſhe had in company when captain Irwin left them.

NEW-YORK, February 9.

David Humphreys, Eſquire, our miniſter reſident at Liſbon, arrived yeſterday from Newport, (R. I.) having landed there from the ſhip Patty, of this port. He proceeded immediately for Philadelphia.

Captain Gardner, of the ſhip Joſeph, arrived here yeſterday from Cherburg, informs that previous to his departure he was in Paris, and dined with Mr. Thomas Paine, who had been liberated from the Luxembourg priſon, and was admitted to take his ſeat in the national convention. The remainder of the Briſſotine party had alſo been liberated. The utmoſt tranquillity exiſted at Paris, and throughout France. The Spaniards have lately experienced another moſt complete defeat, with immenſe loſs of men, and warlike ſtores. We ſhall give further particulars to-morrow.

By the Patty, from Liſbon, we learn that the queen of Portugal's palace is deſtroyed by fire.

February 11.

Paris intelligence, received by the Joſeph, captain Gardner from Cherburg, as late as the 10th of December.

On the 8th, the committee of public ſafety reported to the convention the victories of the eaſtern and weſtern Pyrennes; that the forts of St. Fernando, Vignieres and Lye, were taken, with a garriſon of 9107 Spaniards as priſoners of war; 171 pieces of cannon; 200,000 lbs. powder; 10,000 quintals flour; 10,000 blankets; 20,000 ſuits of cloaths; 25,000 quintals of fire-wood, and 9000 live ſheep. That the Spaniſh general count de l'Union, and three other general officers were killed—that a thouſand Spaniards fell by the ſword in another combat. Decreed, that the army of the eaſtern and weſtern Pyrennees continue to deſerve well of their country.

On the 9th, the convention decreed, that Thomas Paine is not included in the decree which excludes foreigners from a ſeat in the convention.

From the Banks of the Viſtula, November 1.

On the 28th of October, the Poliſh general Hinſki, attacked the left wing of general Faarat, and right of general Gunther, the conflict was bloody, but the iſſue proved very favourable to the Poles; one of the Ruſſian generals, with ſeveral officers, and a number of ſoldiers were made priſoners, they loſt alſo ſeveral pieces of cannon, which have ſince fallen into the hands of the Pruſſians.

The eſcort which conducted Koſciuſco and his fellow priſoners to Peterſburg conſiſted of not leſs than 3000 men.

A letter from Conſtantinople, dated the firſt of October, informs us, that the confidence of the Sublime Porte to the French republic, increaſes daily, in conſequence of our ſurpriſing victories.—The French have given a concert at the national houſe, commemorating the defeat of the combined armies: at the firſt diſcharge of cannon, the French citizens riſing in a body, chaunted the ſacred hymn of liberty. The concert then commenced and ended with republican toaſts.

At Smyrna, a ſimilar feaſt was celebrated with equal fraternity.

The Engliſh ambaſſador has preſented a memorial to the Porte, complaining of the infringement of the laws of neutrality on part of the Porte: he ſays that armed veſſels have been fitted out at Smyrna to cruiſe againſt the Engliſh, without the leaſt obſtacles on the part of government. That French veſſels have made prizes in ſight of Turkiſh veſſels.

Dec. 6. On the 17th November, the right diviſion of the French army of the eaſtern Pyrennees, totally defeated the Spaniards, who fled before the French artillery and bayonets, leaving their baggage, artillery and tents for 50,000 men. The French diviſion was commanded by Angerau.

Intelligence from Conſtantinople ſtates, that the Porte, in the midſt of his pacific declarations, was active in increaſing his military preparations. It is ſaid his land forces are to be augmented to 180,000 men.

On the 30th November, the ſum of 8 millions 990 thouſand livres, ariſing from the ſale of national domains, was burnt at the ci-devant Capuchins.

Accounts from Bruſſels, dated the 29th November, ſtate, that the garriſon of Luxembourg, with a view as it was ſuppoſed, of opening communications with various places, made a ſortie, in which they had been repulſed and compelled to retire into the city. Luxembourg, by its ſituation, is a principal key of Germany and Belgium, and a place of the utmoſt conſequence. Its garriſon conſiſts of 12,000 Auſtrians, commanded by field-marſhal Bender.

According to letters from Manheim, the French have abandoned Worms.

A Paris paper of December 6, contains the proceedings of the convention on the ſubject of the ravages committed under Robeſpierre's domination. A deputation from the commune of Bedouin, eſcaped proſcription, was admitted to the bar. They ſtated the misfortunes of their country and aſked for ſuccour.

The citizen Oudard, nominated miniſter plenipotentiary to the United States, has given in his reſignation. He is replaced by citizen Adet, formerly reſident in Geneva.

PHILADELPHIA, February 12.

General Dugomier was ſlain in battle with the Spaniards, on the 27th November. The convention have directed his name to be inſcribed on the column in the Pantheon, erected to the memory of the defenders of their country. This general was an inhabitant of Martinico, and elected to repreſent that iſland in Convention; but his ſervices were ſuppoſed to be of more uſe in the army. He had been immenſely rich, but was reduced; his property having been ſeized by the Engliſh, or plundered by rebels. His wife is ſtill living in Martinico, and he has left two ſons, adjutants-general in the army he commanded.

An attempt to poiſon the duke of York.

By an article in the London Evening Chronicle, we learn that an attempt of the following nature has lately been made to take off the duke of York by poiſon.—The duke uſually takes a glaſs of wine and bitters in the morning, one evening, however, he received a hint to beware of his accuſtomed refreſhment the enſuing morning, and was informed of the reaſon. In the morning when his cup-bearer brought in the liquor, the duke inquired if it was properly prepared, and being anſwered in the affirmative, inſtantly drew his ſword and compelled the unhappy man to drink it, who in conſequence ſuddenly expired.

CHARLESTON, January 12.

Saturday arrived the brig Induſtry, captain Lincoln. Captain Lincoln informs, that the Britiſh troops evacuated Baſſeterre, in the iſland of Guadaloupe, on the night of the 10th December laſt; they would have been compelled to quit before, if the French had not wanted ammunition; they left about 14 men in the fort to deliver it up. About 10 days before the evacuation, the French retook the iſland called Marigalante; about 200 men went over from St. Anne's in open boats, and ſurpriſed the garriſon, which conſiſted of about 40 men. The Britiſh garriſon retired from Guadaloupe to Martinico. Neither a French nor Engliſh fleet had arrived in the windward iſlands when capt. Lincoln ſailed, though each was looked for daily.

BALTIMORE, February 11.

The London Star, of December 9, under the Dantzic head, after detailing the circumſtances of the marquis La Fayette's eſcape, adds:

"But by letters from Breſlau of the 18th, we learn, that they had ſeparated, the marquis had already reached Branneiſen, near Sternberg, where he was diſcovered in conſequence of his liberality to the poſtmaſter, and that he is at preſent again ſecured at Olmutz. The doctor has alſo been taken up at Schweidntz in the king of Pruſſia's dominions."

ANNAPOLIS, February 19.

FRENCH POLITENESS.

"Pichegru ſent a public meſſage to the duke of York, intimating to him, "That as he meant to make Nimeguen the ſeat of his winter quarters, he would be much obliged to citizen York, to remove with all convenient ſpeed. He was ſorry to be obliged to diſturb him ſo often; but he was convinced from his former civility, that he would make no heſitation in complying with his requeſt." The duke obſerved, d—n him, give him an inch, and he will take an ell; however he took the hint, and very politely fell back to Arnheim, where our laſt accounts left him."

Approved, January the twenty-eighth, 1795.

GEO. WASHINGTON, Preſident of the United States.

Depoſited among the rolls in the office of the ſecretary of ſtate.

EDM. RANDOLPH, Secretary of ſtate.

By virtue of a decree of the honourable the Chancellor of the ſtate of Maryland, agreeable to the laſt will and teſtament of col. JOHN WEEMS, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceaſed, the ſubſcribers will OFFER, at PUBLIC SALE, on the PREMISES, on the eighteenth day of March next, if fair, if not the firſt fair day thereafter, at twelve o'clock,

THE following valuable tracts or parcels of LAND, lying in the county aforeſaid, and within about a mile of Herring Creek church, viz. all the ſaid John Weems's part of a tract of land called LORDSHIP'S BOUNTY, containing 101 acres, alſo all his part of three other tracts called BURRAGE, BURRAGE'S BLOSSOM and BURRAGE'S END, containing 200 acres, all of which lay adjacent to each other, and in good form; the improvements are, ſeveral good negro quarters, a corn houſe and a tobacco houſe almoſt new, and two valuable apple orchards of excellent fruit. The above lands abound with wood and timber. Alſo, all his, the ſaid John Weems's, other two tracts or parcels of land, on Herring Creek, lying within a quarter of a mile of the lands aforeſaid, viz. DIANA BEAVER DAMS, containing 157¾ acres, and PAUORT, containing 200 acres, both of which lay directly adjacent, and almoſt in a ſquare, having a ſufficiency of meadow land to make it a beautiful farm; the improvements are, a ſmall dwelling houſe, two tobacco houſes, ſome negro quarters, and a good granary directly on navigable water, capable of receiving any kind of produce, about 40 buſhels of wheat ſowed on the ſaid land, and under good repair. All the above mentioned lands are deemed equal to any land in Anne-Arundel county, about ſixteen miles from the city of Annapolis, and about ſix or ſeven hours run by water to Baltimore-town. The above lands will be ſold altogether or in parcels, as may beſt ſuit the purchaſers. The terms of ſale are, that the purchaſer or purchaſers of the ſaid land give bond, on intereſt, with approved ſecurity, to the ſubſcribers, as truſtees, for the payment of the purchaſe money, and intereſt thereon, within fifteen months from the day of ſale. The lands not to be conveyed until the ſale ſhall be confirmed by the chancellor, and the purchaſe money, together with the intereſt, ſhall be fully diſcharged. The creditors of the ſaid col. John Weems, deceaſed, are requeſted to lodge their claims, legally authenticated, with the chancellor, on or before the eighteenth day of September next.

PROPOSALS,

For a NEW NEWS-PAPER, ENTITLED,

Fell's-Point Telegraphe.

TO THE PUBLIC.

WHEN the preſent high price of ſubſcriptions to the eſtabliſhed news-papers in Baltimore is conſidered, the neceſſity of one at a more moderate expence, muſt be ſtrikingly evident.—There are few perſons in the ſtate of Maryland, unleſs in the commercial towns, who would wiſh, or can conveniently afford to pay a ſubſcription of SIX OR SEVEN DOLLARS per annum, together with the expence of poſtage; and when the great and acknowledged uſefulneſs of theſe kind of publications is taken into view, there is every reaſon to expect, that the preſent undertaking will meet with the general patronage and encouragement of our diſcerning citizens. To accommodate, therefore, our readers, in every rank and deſcription of ſociety, it is propoſed to publiſh the FELL'S-POINT TELEGRAPHE at the low price of TWO AND AN HALF DOLLARS per annum, which is to be paid half yearly in advance:—And that it may not be defective in communicating any article of intereſting intelligence, it will be publiſhed as often as the poſt arrives, three times a week; on Mondays, Wedneſdays, and Fridays, when it will be delivered to ſubſcribers at the Point and in Town, and immediately forwarded, agreeably to order, to thoſe in the country.

It will be printed on good paper, and of a quarto ſize; and the editor is determined to ſpare no pains to render it a uſeful, inſtructive, and entertaining paper.—For this purpoſe, he will make the beſt ſelections in his power from all the American and European prints; and ſhould any thing important or intereſting appear in any of the Baltimore papers, his friends may alſo be aſſured, that it will be inſerted in the TELEGRAPHE.

As there can be no doubt but this cheap and uſeful paper will find a ready circulation in every part of the ſtate of Maryland, a work of this kind being ſo much wanted, it is preſumed it will claim its ſhare of the advertiſing buſineſs. The editor, advantageouſly ſituated on Fell's-Point, will be eaſily enabled to procure every article of ſhip news, and be early acquainted with the arrival of every ſpecies of merchandiſe, which he will communicate to the public. He therefore ſolicits his friends and the public for their advertiſing cuſtom; and he truſts that their advertiſements will be printed correctly, and judiciouſly diſplayed.

Original eſſays, both moral and political, authentic accounts of marriages, deaths, and other caſualties, will be received with gratitude, and meet with due attention. And here, he thinks it neceſſary to remark, that it is his fixed determination, to conduct the Telegraphe on free and rational principles:—Averſe to party purpoſes, no intereſt or emolument whatever, will influence him to diſturb the peace of domeſtic tranquillity, by publiſhing anonymous ſlander, or malevolence, againſt individuals in the private walks of life.

The public's very humble
And obedient ſervant,
J. W. ALLEN.

STATE of DELAWARE, ſs.

BY virtue of an order of the orphans court, held at Dover, in and for the county of Kent, on the tenth day of December, Anno Domini one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four, will be EXPOSED to SALE, by way of PUBLIC VENDUE, on Monday the fourth day of May next, on the premiſes,

ALL that tract or parcel of land, ſituate in Murderkill hundred, in the county aforeſaid; containing in the whole about one thouſand five hundred acres, being the property of BENEDICT BRICE, deceaſed, at the time of his death, and to be ſold for the payment of his debts. For the accommodation of thoſe who may incline to purchaſe, the ſaid land will be laid off in three diviſions, with a ſufficient quantity of woodland to each diviſion; the terms of ſale to be is follow, one third of the purchaſe money to be paid an one year from the day of ſale, one third in two years, and the remaining third in three years, with intereſt, on the reſpective payments from the day of ſale. Attendance will be given, and further particulars made known, by

3 MARY COOK, adminiſtratix of the ſaid deceaſed.

By order of the court,
SIPPLE WHARTON, Clk.

December 10, 1794.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the ſubſcriber intends to make application to the juſtices of Anne-Arundel county, at their next April court, to grant a commiſſion to mark and bound part of three tracts of land, called IIAMS's PURCHASE, IIAMS's LAST PURCHASE, and BURGESS's CHOICE, lying and being in Anne-Arundel county, agreeably to an act of aſſembly for marking and bounding lands.

2 WILLIAM CHAPMAN.

January 26, 1795.

PROPOSALS,

For a NEWS-PAPER.

THE ſubſcribers beg leave to inform their friends, and the public in general, that, having procured the new and elegant apparatus, lately imported from Europe, by Mr. JOHN HAYES, they intend publiſhing a daily news-paper, under the title of The Baltimore Telegraphe.

It is propoſed to publiſh this paper every morning, (Sundays excepted) on a larger and more extenſive ſcale, than any heretofore attempted in the State of Maryland. The name will indicate the intention of the editors, that like the new machine, lately invented in France, it may communicate the earlieſt and moſt intereſting intelligence.

That this publication may be rendered agreeable to their friends and patrons, the editors beg leave to lay before them an idea of their plan.

I. As it is of great importance to the people, to be regularly informed of the operations of the general government, a certain portion of this paper will be appropriated to the debates of congreſs, the laws and all intereſting reports proceeding from that body, and from the officers of ſtate, ſo as to exhibit a connected view of their deliberations.

II. They will duly notice matters that are intereſting to the United States, ſuch as the progreſs of manufactures, agriculture, commercial enterpriſes, uſeful undertakings and inſtitutions, debates and proceedings of the national convention of France, and of the Britiſh parliament, with many other affairs from the moſt accredited foreign prints, which may appear worthy of inſertion.

III. Intereſting foreign and domeſtic publications ſhall be frequently announced, and copious extracts given of their contents, either from the works themſelves, or from the moſt impartial reviewers or critics; their deſign being, not only to render this paper an early vehicle of news, but alſo a magazine of uſeful and entertaining knowledge.

IV. With reſpect to eſſays of every deſcription, they will be guided by one general rule, founded on the freedom of the preſs, which they conceive ought only to extend to public characters; and therefore, they particularly oblige themſelves, to reject all pieces which contain invectives againſt private citizens, or reflections that might, in any manner, injure their reputation, or occaſion what is termed a news-paper war.

Theſe general ſketches of their deſign are ſubmitted to the conſideration of the public, from whom they ſolicit that ſupport, which it ſhall be their conſtant ſtudy to merit.

Having been encouraged in this buſineſs, by a very reſpectable number of the inhabitants of this town, they flatter themſelves, that The Baltimore Telegraphe will ſoon have a general and extenſive circulation, and thereby become uſeful to merchants, country traders, and others, as an advertiſing paper. The elegance and beauty of their type will undoubtedly claim the public approbation; and they are determined to execute all buſineſs intruſted to their care, with neatneſs and accuracy.

The firſt number will be publiſhed early in March, on a ſuper-royal ſheet, the ſize of Mr. BROWN's Philadelphia Gazette, at ſeven dollars per annum, and regularly forwarded to country ſubſcribers, agreeably to orders, with all poſſible expedition and care.

The ſituation of public affairs, both in Europe and America, renders the preſent period truly intereſting to every freeman; we therefore preſume, that a publication intended for the ſupport of republican principles, which may contain a judicious ſelection of the moſt important events, cannot fail of being very acceptable to our fellow-citizens.
